THIS VOLUME OF HISTORICAL ABSTRACTS
IS DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF

Jaime Vicens Vives

6 June 1910 to 28 June 1960

Jaime Vicens Vives died at the age of fifty, in Lyon, France, after a serious lingering illness. Spain thus lost an outstanding historian and his family and friends lost a man they dearly loved and esteemed.

Professor Vicens' dynamic personality and fine scholarship brought a new stimulus to historical writing in the Hispanic world. His systematic research on social and economic motivation in historical development is his distinct contribution to Spanish historiography. Professor Vicens' work covered a wide range of subjects, starting with his doctoral thesis on Ferdinand the Catholic, works on John II of Aragon and on the social problems of the 15th century, and research on various aspects of the 19th century. Vicens' books on Industrials i polítics del segle XIX (1958), his Manual de historia económica de España (1956), as well as the paper he was to read at the Xth International Congress of Historical Sciences in Stockholm (1960) on "Estructura administrativa estatal en los siglos XVI y XVII," reveal a fresh approach to the social and economic aspects of history. The Centro de Estudios Históricos Internationales, which he started, has suffered an irreplaceable loss through his death.

As a consequence of his research and his teaching experiences at the University of Barcelona, Vicens became aware of the need for a proper bibliographical tool to guide students and scholars through the vast field of Spanish and Latin American historical publications. This led him to start, in 1953, the bibliography Índice Histórico Español, and to devote much of his energy and talent to this huge task. There has been a close and fruitful collaboration between that publication and HISTORICAL ABSTRACTS. Two years ago HISTORICAL ABSTRACTS had the privilege of having him join its Advisory Board, and we have greatly benefited from his advice and the co-operation of his devoted staff.

Those who knew Jaime Vicens Vives personally, as the editor of HISTORICAL ABSTRACTS had the honor, remember his personal magnetism and his courage to stand by his convictions. We share with his widow and young children, to whom he was so devoted, the deep grief over the early death of a magnificent person and a great scholar.
